

BIO OF PROFESSOR IKE EHIRIBE FCIArb, C.Arb, QDR.
Barrister, Chartered Arbitrator & Accredited Mediator.

Ike was called to the Nigerian Bar in 1982 and to the Bar of England and Wales in 1996 by the Honorable Society of Lincoln's Inn. He became a Fellow of CIArb, London in 1994 and a Chartered Arbitrator in 2007. He is a commercial mediator accredited by the Academy of Experts of Gray's Inn. He undertook Maritime Arbitration training with the (HMAA) in Houston and the (SMA) in New York; and Maritime Mediation training with the British Marine Federation (BMF). He is an aspiring full member of the (LMAA), a member of the (GMAA) in Hamburg and (MAAN) in Nigeria. He is an international arbitrator and dispute resolver practising out of 7 Stones Commercial & IP Chambers based in London and Ike Ehiribe & Co. based in Nigeria.

As a Visiting Professor and Fellow at the Centre for International Legal Studies (CILS) in Salzburg; a part-time Professor of Law he has taught International Trade Law, International Commercial Arbitration, and Maritime Arbitration Modules etc. in various universities in England and Europe. He is an approved tutor, trainer and assessor on the arbitration, adjudication and mediation training courses of CIArb, London and other international arbitral institutions.