

Foluke Akinmoladun is the Managing Solicitor at Trizon Law Chambers, Nigeria, with a professional practice focused on arbitration, mediation, and commercial dispute resolution. She is qualified as an arbitrator, mediator, mediator-advocate; party representative and has acted as arbitrator, arbitral registrar, and counsel in both domestic and international proceedings. Her dispute resolution experience spans maritime, construction, finance, energy, and other commercial disputes, conducted under institutional and ad hoc arbitration frameworks.

Her approach to dispute resolution is strengthened by additional training in accounting, insolvency, corporate governance, shipping finance, and online dispute resolution, enabling her to manage financially and technically complex matters effectively. She regularly delivers training and presentations on arbitration, mediation, ADR advocacy, and sector-specific dispute resolution, and has published on arbitration, maritime law, and construction-related topics.

Foluke is a Member and Fellow of several professional bodies, including the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb), Nigeria Branch; the Institute of Chartered Mediators and Conciliators; and the Nigerian Institute of Chartered Arbitrators amongst others. She serves on panels of neutrals at the Lagos Multi-Door Courthouse, Kaduna Multi-Door Courthouse, and the Nigerian Institute of Chartered Arbitrators, and is a pioneer member of the panel of neutrals of the Asaba Chamber of Commerce International Arbitration Commission (ASCCIAC). Her maritime arbitration practice is reflected in her supporting membership of the London Maritime Arbitrators Association (LMAA) and active involvement with the Maritime Arbitrators Association of Nigeria as the Honourary Secretary. She is a member of an also actively participates in the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR and ICC Nigeria's Arbitration Committee.

In addition to practice, she delivers training and presentations on arbitration, mediation, ADR advocacy, and sector-specific dispute resolution, and has published on arbitration, maritime law, and construction-related topics, combining dispute resolution practice with capacity development and institutional engagement.